

LET US BE WOMEN WHO LOVE

with Idelette McVicker
FEBRUARY 28 TO MARCH 1, 2020

Temple Garden Mineral Spa | Moose Jaw, SK

ABOUT IDELETTE Idelette McVicker loves Jesus, justice, and living juicy. She drives a mini-van, spends a lot of time at soccer fields and hockey rinks, AND has a big heart for the world.

While she was born and raised in South Africa, 19 years ago, she moved from Taiwan to Canada to marry Scott. Her life has been marked by this global perspective, while also raising two teenagers, a preteen, a Bernese Mountain dog, and a restaurant.

In 2010, she founded SheLovesmagazine.com and it has now grown to include a Dangerous Women membership community, the Red Couch Bookclub, events, and gatherings. She believes in curating transformational spaces for women, so we can grow strong in community and become expressions of God's heart for justice here on earth.

As an Afrikaner woman, born and raised during Apartheid in South Africa, it's her story that humbly compels her to step out for justice and everyday peacemaking.

She's a Seven on the Enneagram, an INFP, and mostly wears black, with a dash of animal print or faux fur, even to hockey early on a Saturday morning.

Full Weekend $300 | Register by January 20, 2020

Send registration forms to:

Retreat Registrar: Andrea Muirhead
1825 Rothwell Street, Regina, SK, S4N 2C3
Phone: 306-533-8549

Or register online at:
www.sistertriangle.ca